

Fingerprint Construction With Tara Basile

Event: BEPC Monthly Meeting
Date: Monday, April 17, 2017

Greetings Friends and Light Workers!

Mark your calendars for another phenomenal speaker! We are honored and excited to have Tara Basile sharing Fingerprint Construction with us.

Fingerprint Construction - Life Purpose, Life Lessons and the Soul Psychology of Heroes and Villains

Like an acorn containing a map within itself of the oak tree it may someday become, our fingerprints, formed five months prior to our birth, reveal our Life Purpose and Life Lessons. Our Life Purpose is what we have come to do in this lifetime that which (if we are willing to live it) would yield the highest sense of personal satisfaction - a personal directive straight from our highest self. Our Life Lesson is what we need to learn in order to unlock the door into our Life Purpose. We will explore the Life Purpose information in the hands of some famous Heroes and Villains, seeking to gain insight into their circumstances and relationship patterns from the perspective of Soul Psychology as given by their fingerprints. Afterwards, we will examine our own fingerprint charts and see where the Hero lies within you.

Tara Basile has always been a teacher but had no idea that teaching is part of her life's purpose. She had been teaching math and science to middle school children since 1997 and came to discover Hand Analysis, a modern form of palmistry, out of curiosity and a search for meaning while on a leave of absence. What she found has fascinated her ever since – that messages from your Soul are written in your hands. Since then she has studied with one of the foremost innovators in the world of hand analysis alive today and is currently working on her Mastership in Hand Analysis with the the International Institute of Hand Analysis. .

In addition to Hand Analysis, she is a holistic nutritional coach, and an energy worker combining Reiki and the TAG System of Transformation for healing energetic blockages. She is also a practitioner of the Power of Clearing, which is a radical forgiveness tool that allows the True Self, buried deep within a history of trauma, negative beliefs and judgments, to thrive, grow, and be acknowledged. In short, her mission is to put people back in touch with who they really are. Why? Because she, at one time had forgotten and it has meant the world to her to remember. In fact, being reminded saved her life.

Beyond work in the energetic and esoteric, she is a wife and a mom of three, she tutors math and science students in her local school district, and spends much of her spare time sitting on soccer sidelines being a soccer mom. She wouldn't have it any other way.
