

PURPOSE

A place to meet as a community of kindred spirits sharing interests in parapsychology, the healing arts, and all subjects related to spirit, the seen, and unseen world, and discovering the unspoken truths. To participate in these gatherings promotes a spirit of unity, cooperation and sharing. We are all one in consciousness; and as each life is in transformation, each in their own way transforms the world we live in. Indeed, we are living at exciting times in which the world is changing more rapidly than ever before.
