

Chinese Face Reading Stacy Calvert

Event: BEPC Monthly Meeting

Date: Monday November 20, 2017

Greetings Friends and Light Workers!

Mark your calendars for another phenomenal speaker! We are honored and excited to have Stacy Calvert sharing Chinese Face Reading with us.

People ask if they have to be Chinese to have their face read and I always smile and say, "No". Face reading was developed in China and is an ancient branch of Chinese medicine. It is thousands of years old and is based on the five elements of water, wood, fire, earth and metal.

Your face is a road map of your journey through life. Every line and wrinkle tells a story about where you've been and where you may be heading. Each feature of the face gives information about your true nature.

Face reading uses the face and your birthdate to help you understand who you came here to be, where you go under stress and pressure and what your karmic challenges are. It also tells you what type of year to expect energetically.

Understanding why you do things the way you do can be useful in helping you to navigate life's waters and understand the nature of those closest to you.

I've been a Certified Clinical Hypnotherapist, Neuro Linguistic Coach (master certification), and certified Matrix Energetics Practitioner since 2009. It is my privilege to help facilitate with people making personal transformations through the use of hypnosis, neuro linguistics and energy work. In 2012 I added Chinese face reading to my services. I've mentored under Jean Haner, one of the leading people in this field. January of 2012 I became a co-founder and presenter for Northwest Mediumship Meetup group, a group that meets once a month to develop their mediumship abilities. In 2012 I also became a member of the Washington State Ghost Society and serve as a medium on paranormal investigations. In 2015 I added animal communication to the things that I do. I love reading animals and find they often have very healing messages.
